There's a good chance that you have noticed at least one doorknob. A doorknob is a component of a door and is used to keep the door closed, but not necessarily locked. However, a doorknob is not just used for blocking the door. A doorknob is used as a decorative as well. So you can add some cute doorknobs to give your homes or office a hint of style and character. To add some doorknobs to your home or office, you can opt for several different options. Here are some of them: Doorknob with Slices: These are also called a doorknob stock or doorknob kits. You will be amazed how easy and simple these doorknobs are to make. Just take a piece of wood for as long as you want. Paint it or stain it. Attach the doorknob, and you have a doorknob that is ready to be used. Doorknob with Slices are great as accents. In fact, you can use them to decorate your living room, dining room, or kitchen. You can buy and color match these to give your room or
