The JFrame won't close. It does actually run the game screen, but doesn't seem to close properly? I can't figure out why. Is there a way to make the main game-loop exit this JFrame? A: You have to run public void run() { game.start(); try { game.gameScreen.setVisible(true); } catch (InterruptedException e) { e.printStackTrace(); } } as a separate method; you have to invoke this method to run the rest of your game-loop public static void run() { while ( 0cc13bf012
